

In my Father's house there are many dwelling places. If it were not so, would I have told you that I go to prepare a place for you?

John 14:2